

BAKER, Adrian

A Bristol based junior who graduated through the Weymouth Training School in the winter of 1968-69, Adrian had second half rides at Newport that summer. His first chance of a team place came when his fellow Newport junior Roger Knight went on loan to Romford and was injured on the eve of the club's Division Two trip to Berwick on August 16, 1969. Adrian was called up as a replacement and scored two points at Shielfield Park on his debut. He made one other appearance for the 'Bombers' and also appeared once for Newport in their final league fixture of the season at Wolverhampton in October.
