

BAKER, Phil

Born: c. 1952, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia.

Phil came to the U.K. unheralded in 1977 and tried his luck at Weymouth where he was given a two match run on consecutive nights on a northern tour to Middlesbrough and Edinburgh in early August. Having failed to score on his debut Cleveland Park, Phil scored a single point at Edinburgh but did not feature for the side again. He had ridden for an Australasian representative side in a National League level international meeting at Weymouth some weeks before his league debut.
