

BARR, Stephen John

Born: January 20, 1959, Sydney, New South Wales, Australia.

A product of the Nepean circuit in New South Wales, Stephen attracted much attention on his arrival in the U.K., mainly because it was reported that he was a deaf mute. He initially joined Coatbridge in the National League but eventually moved south to join Stoke where he made his debut in September, 1977. He rode five times for the 'Potters' and scored a paid nine at the tight Crayford track in the very last league fixture of the season.
