

BAYBUTT, Christopher J. (Chris)

Born: March 2, 1953, Wrightington, Lancashire, England.

The younger brother of Dave Baybutt, Chris was a junior grass track rider of immense potential who had outings as a 16 year old at Nelson in 1969. He made his debut for the 'Admirals' against Reading at his home Seedhill Stadium on July 12, 1969 and was reportedly riding his 350cc grass track bike for the occasion. Despite his power disadvantage he scored six, paid eight, and followed this up with a nine point score against the King's Lynn 'Starlets' a few weeks later. Chris rode in four matches, all at home, but decided against a career in speedway and the second member of the family with a massive speedway future was sadly lost to the sport.
