

BENNETT, Dennis

Born: c. 1937, England.

Dennis was rated as a huge prospect in 1953 after some startling performances at the Stoke Training School. He was just 16 years of age and made just one appearance for the 'Potters' before signing for Division One side Birmingham during the season, when it transpired that he was not under a full contract at Sun Street. He failed to fulfil his early potential and reportedly walked out on Birmingham after being replaced by a reserve during a meeting. He had second half rides at Swindon in 1955 but was not able to break into the side and another short comeback at Stoke in 1960 did not end in success.
