

BOLE, Stephen Thomas (Steve)

Born: June 15, 1920, Southwark, London, England.

Died: April, 2005

A motor cycle dealer from Forest Gate, London, Steve was a member of the Eastbourne side which competed in the Southern Area League in 1954. The 'Eagles' had a torrid season, winning just two matches all year, but Steve was one of the few success stories as he finished the season as the club's top point scorer. He impressed with some consistent scoring and he recorded between three and eight points in each of his appearances that year. He crowned a decent season by winning the Eastbourne Supporters Trophy individual event but did not return to the track for the 1955 season.
