

BOUSKILL, Harry FaulknerBorn: August 1907, Leeds, West Yorkshire, England.Died: 1976

Harry was a local man in the Leeds side that took to the track for the first ever league fixture in the world, against Barnsley in the English Dirt-Track League on March 29, 1929. He is not believed to have ridden for the club again after this opening fixture. Harry had competed in scratch and handicap races at the Fullerton Park track at the end of 1928 and continued to do so into the following year.
