

BRIGGS, Charlie

Charlie was in the first ever Wembley side to take part in an official fixture when he scored one, paid two, in the 17-25 defeat at White City on May 17, 1929. He is known to have made at least one other appearance for the Empire Stadium club but was soon replaced by the Australian contingent including Charlie Stipcewich, Stan Catlett and Jack Jackson.

Year	Club	Division	M	R	P	BP	TP	CMA	FM	PM
1929	Wembley	SL	Full appearance data not yet available							