

BRIGHTON, Randall (Randy)

Born: Australia.

Randy was based at Wollongong in New South Wales and rode at the Parramatta track in his home state before setting off for the U.K. in 1959. He failed to win a team place at Ipswich and took a job as the track curator at Foxhall Heath before he linked up with Rayleigh when they opened for a season of Provincial League racing in 1960. He made his debut for the 'Rockets' at Cradley Heath on April 16 but failed to score in his one ride, a meeting that proved to be his only official match in the U.K. In 1961 he rode in France under the promotion of Victor Boston and, as a publicity stunt, took the pseudonym of Del Diamond, posing as an American rider.
