

BRINKWORTH, Vic

When Cardiff entered the Third Division of the National League in 1951, the management sought to find a winning formula and used 20 riders in the league and cup campaign alone. Several novices were discarded without much ceremony after just a couple of meetings but Vic was given numerous opportunities to stake a claim for a regular team berth, appearing ten times at various points throughout the season. He had his best score of three, paid four, at home to Wolverhampton but was ultimately unsuccessful in his attempts to become an established team member.
