

BROUGHTON, Johnny

Johnny hailed from Croydon in south London and travelled extensively for rides in 1928, appearing at places like Brighton, Middlesbrough, Salford and Manchester White City. He appeared briefly for Salford in the English Dirt-Track League in 1929 before signing for Sheffield and taking his place in the Owlerton side's first ever league match at Middlesbrough on May 31. He was in and out of the side at Sheffield and never became a regular starter in the side.
