

BROWN, Jack

Jack was a little known Norwich junior who was given his one and only outing for the Second Division club at home to Bristol on October 29, 1949, riding as a replacement for the Australian Bob Leverenz who had sailed for home before the end of the season. There is some suggestion that this was an assumed name and that he was actually called Jeff Brighton.

Year	Club	Division	M	R	P	BP	TP	CMA	FM	PM
1949	Norwich	NL2	1	2	0	0	0	0.00	-	-