

DODSWORTH, Peter (Peter Dodds)

Born: June 23, 1925, Hammersmith, London, England.*

Died: 1980.

Peter bought a bike from old time South African rider Keith Harvey and practised at Rye House before embarking on the long journey to Hull for his first league appearances. When he arrived at Hedon, the promoters considered that his surname was too long and shortened it to Dodds. He made his debut for the 'Angels' against Plymouth on August 7, 1948 and made five appearances for the club in total, scoring two points. Peter did not ride again in league speedway but stayed involved in the sport and was later a pupil of Aub Lawson at the West Ham Training School. He emigrated with his family to Canada in 1954 and passed away at the early age of 55.
