

LUND, Jack

Jack rode in three of Burnley's five league meetings in the 1929 English Dirt Track League before the club pulled out of the competition. The riders were left trying to find other team places and Jack linked up with Preston and turned in some useful performances although, with the talents of riders like Joe Abbott, Frank Charles and Ham Burrill at their disposal, he could never rely on a permanent spot in the side. He did not make any league appearances after 1929.
