

MARTIN, Jack Urquhart

Born: February 3, 1924, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia.

Jack joined Glasgow on the advice of fellow 'Tiger', Bat Byrnes, and spent two seasons in Britain, struggling to win a team place at northern venues. He started the 1948 season in the Glasgow line-up and, whilst his spectacular style was popular with the fans, this was not translated into points and he was dropped after just five appearances for the 'Tigers'. A brief spell at Newcastle was also unsuccessful and, after failing to establish himself at Ashfield in 1949, Jack returned home to Melbourne.

Year	Club	Division	M	R	P	BP	TP	CMA	FM	PM
1948	Glasgow	NL2	5	10	4	3	7	2.80	-	-
1948	Newcastle	NL2	3	6	2	0	2	1.33	-	-
1949	Ashfield	NL2	1	4	2	0	2	2.00	-	-